

Pestilence, Boils, And Hail

Exodus 9

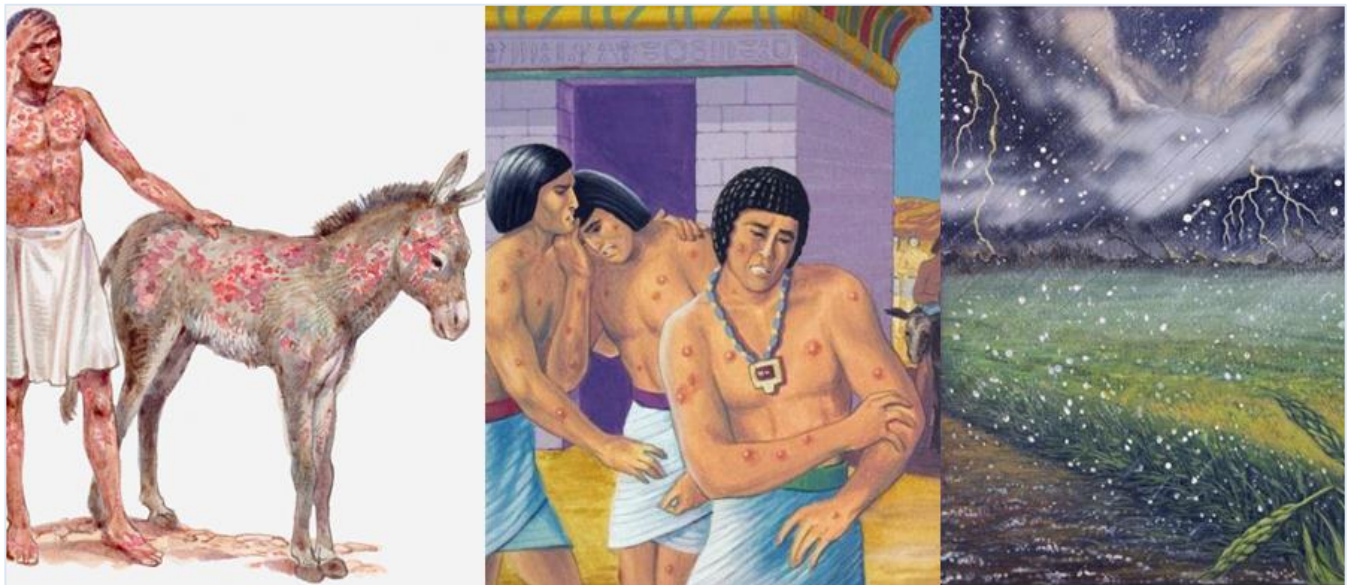

Faith Portal Church

LITTLE STAR

Unit 10 Lesson 8

Focus Verse

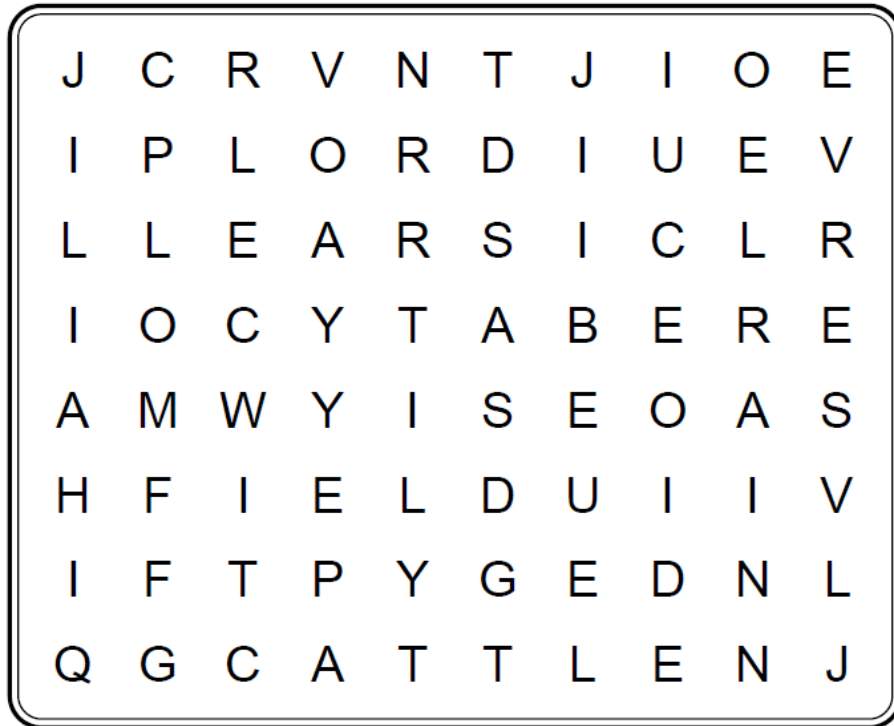

“And there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.” – Exodus 9:4

Bible Story

Once again, God told Moses to talk to Pharaoh. Moses warned that if Pharaoh did not let the Israelites go, a plague would hurt Egypt's animals. The next day, as God had said, all of Egypt's animals died, but the Israelite animals were safe. And yet, Pharaoh did not listen to Moses' warning. Then, God told Moses and Aaron to take ashes from a furnace and throw them in the air. This caused the people and animals of Egypt to have painful bumps on their skin. Still, Pharaoh did not listen. God told Moses to warn Pharaoh that if he did not listen, a huge, destructive hailstorm would come to Egypt. People were told to bring everything valuable inside to protect them. Moses stretched out his hand to start the storm like God had told him, the storm wrecked everything outside, except the safe place where the Israelites lived, called Goshen. In the end, Pharaoh admitted his mistake and asked Moses and Aaron to pray for the storm to stop. He agreed to let the Israelites go. After Moses left the city, he prayed, and the storm stopped. But as soon as Pharaoh saw the storm was over, he changed his mind and did not free the Israelites.

Pestilence, Boils, And Hail

SERVE FIELD EGYPT ISRAEL CATTLE
BOIL RAIN LORD HAIL DUST

Faith Portal Church
McKinney, TX

www.faithportal.org | info@faithportal.org | (469) 920-1792