Closer Look

One day, Jesus was teaching to a group of people who had gathered to listen to Him. He taught them a central lesson using two stories. In the first story, there was a shepherd who had 100 sheep. One of those sheep wandered off and got lost. The shepherd cared a lot for each of his sheep, so he did not want to leave the lost one by itself. He left the other 99 sheep and went on a search for the lost one. When the shepherd found the lost sheep, he was happy and relieved. He picked it up and carried it back to the rest of the flock. He was so overjoyed that he even invited his friends and neighbors to come and celebrate with him. In the second story, there was a woman with ten silver coins. She noticed that just one of the coins was missing. So, she lit a candle, swept the floor, and started searching her whole house. When she finally found it, she was so happy. She called her friends and neighbors, and they all celebrated together. Jesus wanted the people to understand that He is like the shepherd and the woman. Jesus cares so much about each and every one of us.
