Bible Story

There was a priest named Zacharias, and he had a wife named Elisabeth. One day, Zacharias went to the temple to burn incense and an angel appeared. He was instantly scared. The angel told Zacharias that his wife, Elisabeth, will be pregnant with a baby boy that will be named John. John would be filled with the Holy Spirit, and he would lead many people to the Lord. Zacharias did not believe the angel because he and his wife were very old, and it was not possible for them to have a child. Because he doubted, the angel took away Zacharias's ability to talk, and said that he would get it back when the baby is born.

Many months later, Elisabeth gave birth to a son. On the eighth day, they did for the child what the law of Moses commanded, and they were going to name him Zacharias, after his father. But Elisabeth said, no, his name is John. They asked his father what he would have him called. He wrote on a writing tablet, “His name is John.” Immediately, Zacharias was able to speak again, and he praised God.
